

About India

India is my country. I love my country. Its capital city is..... It has states and union territories. Its official language is India is most populous country in the world, and largest country in land area. India shares its international borders with countries.

The currency in India is the One of the main festivals in India is Many women in India wear and men wear India has the largest film industry called as

The main religion in India is..... India is cover by water bodies. The famous mountain range in India is People in India greet each other by saying Taj Mahal in one the seven of the world.

Jai Hind!